InterAct Officers Pinned

Area schools officers gather for group photo after Rotary meeting.

Barbi Manchester proudly read off the names of the officers being pinned during our noon meeting. Each president from each InterAct club also spoke briefly on their club's accomplishments and plans for the year.

Mount Airy Doctor Runs 1000 mile race Funds raised support WOGO

Jan Kriska, WOGO volunteer, and Internal Medicine Doctor in Mount Airy and Elkin has started the Iditasport Race in Alaska. He is running the 1000 mile race from Big Lake, north of Anchorage to Nome. Moneys donated to him on the WOGO.org page will go to support WOGO.

He travels on foot pulling a 70 pound sleigh with his supplies. At this point Dr. Kriska has traveled 433 miles and is in the lead. He is traveling to Poorman, Alaska and is nearly half way finished with the race after starting two weeks ago on February 20.

You can keep track of Dr. Kriska at: <https://iditasportalaska.com/the-race/live-tracking/>

CareNet Counseling

Improves the health of the mind, body, spirit and community

Debbie Morton visited the Noon Club and provided information about CareNet Counseling and the benefits of using their counseling services.

CareNet Counseling is a faith based service. They help their clients achieve, restore and maintain mental wellness along with the support of your faith. They serve clients from over 40 different faith communities.

Surry

Medical Ministries

How Rotary has made a difference

Nancy Dixon spoke to Rotary about how the Rotary funds that were donated to the Surry Medical Ministries have made a difference and touched so many lives for the better.

The clinic has extended its hours on Thursdays to help distribute the wait time on Tuesdays as well as helping people who work. The clinic is also providing eye exams and follow up care.

The Surry Medical Ministries is an asset to our community and helps to provide much needed care to those in need.
