PAST PRESIDENT PRESENTATION

Melissa White was presented with a token of the club's appreciation for serving as our club president during the 2004-2005 year. Many thanks to Melissa, and the board members, who worked hard to keep our club running smoothly. The work of the club cannot be done by any one individual, and we applaud those who are willing to assume responsibility for the club's benefit. Thank you to all who serve.

NEW PAUL HARRIS FELLOWS

RECENT PROGRAMS

Jack Horne presented guest speaker Peter Lyndens on July 5. Peter is working on promoting Mount Airy as an excellent place for retirees who are looking to stay active and to use their many talents and skills developed over a lifetime.

On July 12 Carol Burke introduced her daughter Katherine who reported on her trip to Brazil as a representative of NC State University to an environmental conference. Katherine encouraged our club members to recycle.

Mayor Jack Loftis was our guest on July 19, giving the club an update on what's happening in Mount Airy. The August issue of Reader's Digest will feature Mount Airy as a Micropolitan town where the living is simpler, but not boring. This is important recognition for our town and many thanks to David Bradley, the mayor and many others for providing information and enthusiasm to the writer from the publication. The mayor also said 36 new business licenses have been issued since January; the new amphitheater has gotten rave reviews; a public park with restrooms is being constructed on main street across from Snappy Lunch; SouthData, Inc. and Advanced Electronics purchased and divided the Cross Creek knitting plant, and both will add new employees and begin operations before year-end; Gerhard Bakery is completing their building at the new industrial park and should be baking bread by year-end. Londstar steakhouse is nearing completion and Pizza Hut just opened their new facility.

CLUB MEMBER REMINDERS

Leave of Absence - If you must take a leave of absence from Rotary, please send a letter to the club secretary or president beforehand. This way your time away from the club can be properly recorded. These can be addressed to Bonnie Hawks or Jay Williams and mailed to our club address of PO Box 781 Mount Airy, NC 27030.

Sign-in Please - Our fine club secretary Bonnie is asking everyone to please help her by signing in as you enter. The sign-in forms will be at the back of the room on the table with our club name buttons.

Club Make Ups - Please remember to sign any club make-up slip you receive when visiting another club. It won't do any good turning them into our club secretary if she doesn't know who it belongs too.
